National Specialty Judges Education Workshop

Grey Summit, MO - April 21, 2011

The ASSA National Specialty Judges Education Workshop is open to judges already AKC approved for any breeds, and to Sheltie breeders who meet or will shortly meet AKC's requirements to apply for judging approval. Please fill out the applicable portions of this application – and please write legibly:

NAME _____

ADDRESS _____

PHONE NUMBERS _____

EMAIL (important!) _____

If already AKC approved, please list breeds: _____

If not yet approved, please review the AKC's minimum requirements for applying for judging approval, as listed on the AKC website (at least 12 years experience, 5 Sheltie litters whelped and raised on your premises, bred 4 Sheltie champions, stewarding experience, match/sweeps/futurity judging experience). Please briefly describe how you meet the requirements, or how and when you will have met them. _____

If not yet approved, when do you anticipate submitting your application to AKC? _____

The 2011 National Specialty Workshop will take place on Thursday, April 21 at the show site at Purina Farms, commencing in the morning. Ringside mentoring will be available on Friday, April 22, and probably on Thursday afternoon, depending on the judging schedule. For more information on the site and local lodging, please see the ASSA website (www.assa.org).
